Frequently Asked Questions - Class Funds

Please accept our sincere appreciation for the leadership you are providing your classmates in your class fund initiative. Class giving efforts fund many important student awards and special initiatives that continue to make a positive difference at Queen's. The class giving model relies on the commitment of individuals to endorse and persuade their classmates to reconnect with Queen's and leave a group legacy in such a special manner. Thank you for championing this effort.

We are pleased to provide the following with this year's 2011-12 fund report for The James R. Booth Memorial Award:

Sandra Booth
Colin Stephenson

What information on the Fund Report could we provide to fellow classmates?

Book Value vs Market Value

As the Market Value reflects the investment performance of the Pooled Endowment Fund, which fluctuates monthly, the fund's Book Value (or Capital Account Balance) should be provided to the class.

Capital Account Balance (April 30, 2012): $14,473

Investment Income

To reflect investment income year-over-year and potential fund growth, we recommend reporting annual investment income (please note that this is not necessarily what will be disbursed):

2011-12 Investment Income: $555

2012-13 Investment Income: $521

Historical Award Data

Number of awards disbursed since Fund's inception: 4

Total disbursed since Fund's inception: $2,100

Award Recipient

While we are pleased to provide the recipient's name in the fund report, privacy legislation requires different handling when communicating to classmates.

Under the Freedom of Information Protection of Privacy Act (FIPPA) the release of information the award recipient consents to on all awards administered through the Office of the University Registrar, Student Awards allows for the release of the recipient's full name, program of study, year, and address or a telephone number. This information can only be released to the contact person(s) listed on fund.

The consent statement used by the Office of the University Registrar, Student Awards does not permit the recipient's personal information to be published online or in print. If a Class wishes to publish this information online or in print then further consent outlining the specific use of the recipient's personal information is required from the recipient.

Formal requests for further consent from the recipient must be directed through the Senior Awards Officer, Donor Relations, in the Office of the University Registrar, Student Awards. Any request of this nature must include how the information will be utilized and a description of who will be the intended audience for this information. Further, only students who are actively registered at Queen's will be contacted to provide further consent to release personal information.
